WHERE
INDONESIAN HERITAGE
BECOMES GLOBAL ART

In a world where perfection is often machine-made, true luxury is found in the touch of human hands.

Every piece in this collection begins not with a mold...
but with fire, metal, patience, and decades of mastery.

In the artisan villages of Boyolali, Indonesia, copper is shaped the way it has been for generations—

slowly, intentionally, and with a level of care that no machine can imitate.

Every strike of the hammer, every curve, every texture carries the soul of its creator, making each product a one-of-a-kind artwork.

Our collection is more than décor.

It is a celebration of heritage.

A testament to craftsmanship.

A reflection of timeless beauty designed for modern luxury spaces across the world.

From elegant rain chains that guide water like poetry,
to hand-carved calligraphy that shines with spiritual grace,
to functional art pieces that transform homes, villas, and hotels—each creation is crafted to inspire.

This is where tradition meets sophistication.

Where craftsmanship becomes luxury.

Where copper becomes art.

Welcome to a world shaped by hands, perfected by experience, and destined to elevate every space it enters.

WHERE INDONESIAN HERITAGE BECOMES GLOBAL ART

✨ WHY CHOOSE US

Where Craftsmanship, Quality, and Authentic Luxury Converge

1. Handcrafted by Master Artisans

Every piece is entirely handmade by skilled artisans from Boyolali, Indonesia. No machines—only precision, tradition, and decades of craftsmanship passed from one generation to the next.

2. Premium-Grade Copper Materials

We use only high-quality copper that is durable, corrosion-resistant, and naturally develops a beautiful patina over time.

Our copper is not just material—it's the foundation of timeless luxury.

3. Timeless Luxury Aesthetics

Each design is crafted to complement modern interiors, tropical villas, classic European homes, and Middle Eastern luxury architecture.

One creation, one statement: elegance that endures.

4. Unique, One-of-a-Kind Creations

No two pieces are ever identical.

Variations in texture, curves, and finishing make each item a unique work of art—something mass production can never replicate.

5. Heritage Craft — Modern Function

Our pieces are not only artistic but also functional and durable.

A perfect fusion of traditional Indonesian metalwork with contemporary design needs.

6. Custom Designs for Projects

We accept custom orders for villas, hotels, restaurants, architects, and interior designers.

Every detail—size, pattern, shape, and finish—can be tailored to fit your project perfectly.

7. A Legacy That Grows More Beautiful Over Time

Copper evolves gracefully.

Its patina deepens, its tones warm, and its character matures—making each piece a living artwork that becomes richer year after year.

REPLICANABAWI DOOR

"Some doors are not just built — they are remembered.

The Gate of Al-Masjid An-Nabawi is one of them."

From Boyolali, Indonesia — where master metal craftsmen have worked with copper, brass, and teak wood for decades — comes a respectful, high-quality replica inspired by the historic Nabawi Mosque door.

Each piece is shaped with precision and reverence:

- The circular emblem
- The brass-gold ornamental lines
- The hammered copper base
- And the teak wood foundation symbolizing strength & dignity

This is more than a product.

It is a tribute — a way for homes, villas, mosques, Islamic centers, and private collectors to bring a piece of timeless Islamic heritage into their space.

ROBYONG LAMP

The Light of Legacy: The Javanese Robyong Lantern, Forged in Copper and Time

In the heart of Javanese tradition, light has never been merely illumination; it is a symbol of guidance, nobility, and spiritual radiance. Among its most revered forms is the legendary Robyong Lantern—an iconic masterpiece historically gracing the courtyards and pavilions of Java's royal palaces. More than a lamp, it is a luminous heirloom, casting a glow that whispers of keraton elegance and ancient wisdom.

Illuminated by the master coppersmiths of Tumang Boyolali—where light is shaped by history, and copper tells a royal story.

CALIGRAPHY

In every stroke of Arabic calligraphy lies a prayer, a meaning, a reminder of the divine.

When shaped by the hands of skilled artisans, those sacred lines become more than art—they become a spiritual presence, a source of peace within any space.

Our Handmade Copper Arabic Calligraphy begins as a flat sheet of pure copper.

With careful hands and decades of experience, artisans cut, carve, hammer, and sculpt each curve until the words rise from the metal with life and dimension.

Every engraving is done manually—no machine can replicate its depth, its texture, or the devotion poured into each piece.

The warm glow of polished copper reflects light beautifully, while its natural aging transforms it into a timeless artwork with a rich, antique patina.

Whether it is Asmaul Husna, Ayat Kursi, Basmallah, or any personalized verse, each piece carries spiritual elegance that complements both classical and modern interiors.

Perfect for homes, prayer rooms, villas, mosques, hotels, galleries, and collectors of Islamic art, this calligraphy embodies serenity, heritage, and luxury in one form.

RAIN CHAINS

When the rain begins to fall, something magical happens.

The sound softens.

The water dances.

And a simple home becomes a place of calm and beauty.

Our Handmade Copper Rain Chains are crafted to transform rainwater into an elegant, soothing waterfall—guiding each drop through a series of handcrafted cups, rings, or floral shapes forged from pure copper.

Every piece begins in the hands of experienced artisans in Boyolali, Indonesia.

They hammer the metal with patience, shape each link with precision, and polish the surface until it glows with warm, natural brilliance. No two rain chains are ever exactly the same—each one carries its own character, its own rhythm, its own story.

As the copper ages, it develops a beautiful patina—shifting from bright warm tones to antique brown or soft green, depending on the climate.

It is a living artwork that evolves with nature.

Designed for homes, villas, gardens, patios, gazebos, and tropical or modern architecture, our rain chains elevate even the simplest rainfall into a moment of serenity.

Not just a rain accessory.
A sculptural piece of functional art.
Crafted by tradition.
